

Jason's Gold—Chp. 27 Questions

Once you have read over the chp. 27 excerpt, answer the following questions.

1. What is the author's purpose for the chp. 27 excerpt?

To conclude the novel.

2. Explain why Jason was so happy He was with family and friends.

3. How would you describe how Jason is feeling in this excerpt?

proud, reflective, optimistic, happy

4. When Jason says, "And I'll be standing right here on the dock," he means he will be doing what? He'll be waiting for Jamie in Dawson City.

5. Give 3 reasons why Jason and his brothers didn't need tickets for the show.

a) The stars (Jamie + Homer) were his friends.

b) They were specially invited

c) They had seats in the special box.

5. We discussed how the "gold" in the book title, Jason's Gold is a metaphor for something else. What is the best sentence to show that Jason has found his "gold"? He was needed there.

6. Find a simile in the excerpt and write it here. We will be back for summer surely as the swans and geese.

7. Find a metaphor in the excerpt and write it here.

the chain of Klondikers ascending the Chilkoot.

8. Using context clues, what do you think lavish means? (see the second paragraph)

expensive, extravagant, extensive

9. Using context clues, what do you think encompass means? (see the third paragraph)

to search or find