

Week 10 Daily Geography Questions

Monday

1. Without looking at your map, name the seven continents and five oceans of the world.
2. Looking at the map, is it possible to find the absolute location or the relative location of the seven continents?

Tuesday

1. Which oceans border North America, and in which directions are they in relation to the continent?
2. Which labeled seas border North America?

Wednesday

1. Why are the continents of Europe and Asia sometimes referred to as Eurasia?
2. Which continent is called both a continent and a country? Which sea separates this area from New Zealand?

Thursday

1. Name all the labeled seas that lie on the east coast of Asia.
2. The countries of Italy, India, and Japan are easy to picture due to their unique shapes. In which continents are they located?

Friday

1. Which sea is NOT a labeled waterway that borders Canada?
 - a) Caribbean Sea
 - b) Labrador Sea
 - c) Beafort Sea
 - d) Bering Sea
2. True or False: The Mediterranean Sea flows into the Atlantic Ocean.

Picturing the World

