

Daily Geography - Week 23

Monday

1. What do the initials D.C. stand for in Washington, D.C.?
2. Washington, D.C., is located in which two states?

Tuesday

1. The President of the U.S. lives and works in which building?
2. The Smithsonian Institute is the headquarters for many museums. Name four labeled museums on the National Mall.

Wednesday

1. The National Mall is a park-like area. Which two buildings act as the east-west borders for the mall.
2. What is the Ellipse, and which two buildings flank this area ?

Thursday

1. The new World War II Memorial is being built at the end of the reflecting pool. What other labeled memorial honors veterans of war?
2. Capitol Hill rises 88 feet (27 m). It is the area where the U.S. Capitol Stands. What are two other important labeled government buildings that stand on the hill?

Friday

1. Which building is the most southern on the map.
 - a) White House
 - b) Jefferson Memorial
 - c) Lincoln Memorial
 - d) Supreme Court
2. True or False: Washington,D.C., is the capitol of Virginia and Maryland.