

Daily Geography Week 24

Monday

1. How many national parks are in Utah? Are they located in the northern or southern part of the state?
2. Which national park is near Torrey? How did it get its name?

Tuesday

1. Which national parks are near Moab? How did they get their names?
2. Bryce Canyon National Park has unusual rock formations. The rocks are in what unusual shape?

Wednesday

1. Which national parks are southeast of the state's capitol city?
2. Which two rivers are near or in two national parks?

Thursday

1. Besides canyons, what other physical features are shown on the map of Utah?
2. How can historians tell the native peoples made their home in the Capitol Reef National Park area?

Friday

1. National parks are considered cultural landmarks. Why?
2. True or False: Zion National Park was named by Mormon pioneers. This was a place that provided resources, shelter, and protection for the pioneers as they journeyed west.