

Monday – Week 6

1. What is a system for mapping the round Earth on a flat surface called?
2. What is another name for an oval-shaped projection map? (Hint: think of the title)

Tuesday – Week 6

1. Name all the parallels that are shown on your map that are north of the Equator. What would be the next label after 75 degrees N?
2. What is the range of numbers along the lines of longitude or meridians? (Hint: look at the top of the Earth.)

Wednesday – Week 6

1. Which continents have east longitude in their address?
2. Most of the contiguous United States falls between which two lines of latitude? (Hint: Contiguous means touching on one or more sides.)

Thursday – Week 6

1. Is Central America the same latitude as Africa, Australia, or South America?
2. Which continent includes the coordinates of 90°S latitude, 30°E longitude?

Friday – Week 6

1. Which Ocean is closest to 90°S latitude?
  - a) Pacific Ocean
  - b) Southern Ocean
  - c) Indian Ocean
  - d) Arctic Ocean

2. True or False: Florida has an address of about 30°N latitude and 82°W longitude.